

Graiseley Focus

Edited by Eileen Birch

August 2011

Many local residents have contacted Eileen Birch and your Liberal Democrat FOCUS Team regarding the bus reorganisation. Most are concerned that most buses in our area are not calling at the bus station and Lichfield Street seems to have turned into a mini-bus station.

Eileen said "It seems silly that most of our buses do not call at the new bus station, which was supposed to be an interchange for the trains trams and other buses. The new bus station cost £22.5million and many residents are saying they won't get any use out of it and wonder if it was value for money." Eileen and your Liberal Democrat FOCUS Team have launched a petition demanding that all buses stop at the new bus station - please sign the petition below.

Bus Station Petition

We the undersigned demand that all buses stop at the new bus station.

Eileen welcomes cheque victory

Liberal Democrats' successful campaign to 'Save the cheque' is a victory for common sense says Eileen Birch

Following a nationwide campaign by the Liberal Democrats, the UK Payments Council has reversed their decision to scrap cheques by 2018 and will continue their use for as long as customers need them.

Commenting Eileen Birch said "I want to say a huge thank you to all the local people who signed the Liberal Democrat petition to save the cheque. The campaign was led by West Midland Liberal Democrat MP Lorely Burt and was backed by thousands of people across the UK."

Eileen added "Being able to pay by cheque is especially important for our small businesses, community groups and older people here in Wolverhampton."

Cheques remain a popular way to pay for millions of people across the UK. Over a billion transactions were made by cheque last year alone.

Eileen concluded added, "This is a great victory for people power and common sense, and proves that the banks cannot afford to ignore the views of their customers."
