Local Post Office Set to close

Robin Lawrence and Claire Darke inspect the plans

The Post Office has just announced plans to close the Newhampton Road West post office. The nearest post office will be at the Avion Centre. The Royal Mail claims that the Newhampton Road West Post Office serves an average of just 750 to 999 customers a week where as the Avion Centre Post Office serves twice that number and most offices serve three times as many.

There will be a few weeks for 'consultation' before the plan is finalised so your local City Councillors Robin Lawrence and Claire Darke would like to know your views.

Please answer the questions below and return your answers to our Freepost address to let your councillors know your thoughts about Newhampton Road Post Office.

I use the Newhampton Road post office never occasionally often
