With days to go, polls show the election in our area is on a knife edge. Only the Lib Dems can beat Labour here.	Can't win here	here

Polls show Lib Dem's Zahid Shah is set to win

People reject Labour's neglect

Local opinion polls taken in St Peter's Ward show that it is neck and neck between the Lib Dem's hard working Zahid Shah and the Labour candidate.

For years Labour Councillors have taken St. Peter's voters for granted. They have enjoyed the perks of office but done nothing for the community. Graffiti and fly tipping can be found yards from their own front doors yet even then they have taken no action.

It's a two horse race

Conservatives Out of the race

The Wolverhampton Tory's campaign has descended into chaos. With just weeks to go before the local elections they dumped their local leader and rumours abound of another leadership contest.

In a close two-horse race, the only way residents unhappy with the mess Labour has created here is to vote for Zahid Shah.

Labour has let us down

Let down nationally

"Gordon Brown's decision to abolish the 10p rate of Income Tax will hurt those on low incomes the most" said Zahid Shah.

The change means a huge tax increase for many local residents. Those earning just above benefits but below a decent wage will be paying more Income Tax.

The worst affected will be single working people with no children who earn less than £18,500 a year.

They will pay an extra £232 tax a year!

Let down locally

Wolverhampton's Labour run City Council Council has increased Council Tax yet again this year by nearly 5%.

They have also increased rents by 6% for council tenants.

This is another kick in the teeth for St. Peter's Ward residents.

Prime Minister Gordon Brown should be ashamed.

Tackling Labour's neglect

Zahid Shah has been getting fly tipping cleaned up all round the Ward. This mess in bushes off Dunstall Avenue is close to the home of a Labour Councillor.

Before

There's too much graffiti on our walls. Zahid Shah found this unpleasant sight just yards from the home of a Labour Councillor. It was Zahid that took action to get the walls cleaned up

After
