Last Post for Newhampton Road Post Office

● Local musician Paul Fellows sounds "The Last Post" as Liberal Democrat Councillors and campaigners lead the campaign to save Newhampton Road Post

Local Liberal Democrat campaigners are fighting to save Newhampton Road Post Office.

This local post office is one of 2500 set to be closed by Labour. Zahid Shah said, "Newhampton Road Post Office is vital to our local community. Many Farndale residents use it because of the excellent service offered and they rely on these services. We have already lost the one on Staveley Road so we must fight to save Newhampton Road Post Office."

Thousands of post offices have already been closed by both Labour AND Conservative Governments.

Four other Wolverhampton post offices have now been listed to close. They are:

- Upper Penn
- Portobello
- Prestwood Road
- Villiers Avenue

Who will save our local post offices?

Not Labour

4000 post offices have closed so far under Labour. They plan to close at least 2,500 more .

Not Conservatives

3500 post offices closed during the Conservatives' last time in office.

Only Lib Dems

The only party with a plan to invest £2 billion to open new post offices and give them a long term future.

The Liberal Democrat vision for Britain's Post Offices

Our plan would give a real investment of £2 billion in the post office and would increase the services offered at local post office branches. We are the only party with a fully-funded plan to save the post office, give it a long-term future and not just manage its decline.

Our plan would see:

- £2 billion invested in post office network;
- New branches opening where needed;
- Government services continuing to be available at the Post Office;
- The Post Office freed from Royal Mail restrictions to let it develop new business;
- A new legal requirement for the Government to maintain the local Post

“To lose this post office would be to lose an important part of the community.”

Mr & Mrs W.
Gibbons Road

“I wouldn't know what to do without Newhampton Road Post Office. They are wonderful.”

Mrs Anna Andrews
Newbridge Street

“Yet another attack on genuinely local services”.

Mr R.W. Gray
Gibbons Grove

“Walking up to Tettenhall or the Avion Centre with three small children is far too much hassle. Newhampton Road Post Office is perfect for me.”

Mrs L.L.
Crowther Road

Save Newhampton Road Post Office

We the undersigned call on the Government to stop the closure of Newhampton Road Post Office. We need more post offices, not more cuts.
